Now comes the Defendant, Mary Ahearn, and requests that the time for her to file an answer and responsive pleading in the above captioned case be extended to January 25, 2006, and assigns as reasons for the request for the additional time:

When I, the Defendant, originally requested additional time for filing an answer, responsive pleadings, I assumed that the Attorney I expected to represent me<sup>1</sup> would have time to work on the case. He is now scheduled for trial in Middlesex Superior Court with a evidence, discovery, conference set for the 12th, and trial to begin on the 17th. The trial is expected to run for several days, with arguments and charges set for the 23rd.

I now have to go back through stored records to retrace my dealings with Comcast and the records are not stored with compiling a record of dealing with the cable TV Company, in mind. It is consuming considerable time.

The additional time will permit the preparation of a more suitable answer permitting a more orderly processing of the case and securing of legal counsel and assistance.
